

SCHEDULE- IX.

[See rule (225)]

Hazardous Process.

1. Roof Work.
2. Steel erection.
3. Work under and over water.
4. Demolition.
5. Work in confined spaces.

SCHEDULE- X.

[See rule 225(b)]

Services and facilities to be provided in occupational health centres.

1. One full time construction medical officer for building or other construction work, employing workers upto one thousand and one additional construction medical officer for every additional one thousand workers or part thereof.
2. The staff, including one nurse, one dresser- cum- compounder, one sweeper- cum- ward boy with each construction medical officer for full work hours.
3. The occupational health centre with a floor area of minimum fifteen square meters constituting two rooms with smooth walls and impervious service, adequately illuminated and ventilated.
4. Adequate equipment for day to day treatment.
5. Necessary equipment to manage any medical emergency.

SCHEDULE- XI.

[See rules 119(2) and 225(c)]

Qualification of construction Medical Officer.

1. MBBS degree from a Medical Institute recognised by the Medical Council of India;
and
2. Diploma in industrial health or equivalent post- graduate certificate of training in industrial health or health.
3. A Medical Officer having working experience in organisation/ establishment involved in policy, execution and advice and safety and health of workers employed in mines, ports and docs, factories and building and other construction works, for a period of not less than 3 years may subject to the satisfaction the Chief Inspector of Inspections of Building and Constructions may be required to possessing the training referred to in item (2) above.
4. The syllabi of the courses leading to the above certificates and the organization conducting such courses shall be approved by the Government of Himachal Pradesh who may also from time to time prepare a panel of such organizations.
5. Complete particulars including name, qualification and experience of the construction Medical office will be intimated to the Inspector having jurisdiction.